

What you should not do

You should not:

- avoid or stop going to your treatment;
- miss any appointments with the Probation Service or the people providing your treatment; or
- behave in an aggressive, racist or other unacceptable way.

What happens if you break the rules?

If you break the rules without good reason you will receive a warning or be taken back to court. You are only allowed one warning in any 12-month period.

If you are taken back to court the court could:

- make you do more Requirements;
- make you do different Requirements;
- make this Requirement or other Requirements you are already doing harder; or
- send you to prison.

The court cannot just give you a warning or a fine.

The leaflet about your Community Order or Suspended Sentence Order will tell you more about what will happen if you do not stick to the rules.

It is very important that you attend your appointments and work hard to complete your sentence.

About your sentence

The court has sentenced you to a Community Order or a Suspended Sentence Order. There is a separate leaflet on each of these sentences.

This leaflet tells you about the Mental Health Treatment Requirement that the court has decided you must do as part of your sentence. You might also be given other leaflets to help explain any other Requirement or Requirements the court has decided you must do.

About the Mental Health Treatment Requirement

The court has decided that you would benefit from treatment. You have agreed to this.

Your treatment will be supervised by a medical professional. The aim of the treatment is to help you with some of the problems that led to you being in court.

The person responsible for your sentence (your 'responsible officer') will discuss the details of your Mental Health Treatment Requirement with you.

What your responsible officer will do

They will:

- explain your sentence to you;
- talk to you about the plan for your sentence;
- make clear the kind of treatment you will be having;
- make clear who you will have to see for your treatment;
- make clear where you need to be and what time you must be there;
- make clear what will happen if you avoid or stop going to your treatment;
- review your progress and work with you to help you complete your sentence successfully; and
- treat you fairly.

What you should do

You should:

- listen carefully to what your responsible officer says and do what they ask you to do;
- turn up for appointments on time;
- make sure you turn up in a fit state to take part;
- show respect to probation staff and other people you meet during your sentence;
- tell your responsible officer straight away if you plan to change your address or phone number;
- tell your responsible officer straight away if you are unable to keep an appointment;
- tell your responsible officer if you are having any other problems with completing your sentence;
- carry out any instructions you may be given when you attend for treatment; and
- stay out of trouble.

If you miss an appointment you should get in touch with your responsible officer as soon as possible and tell them why.

If there is a good reason for not being able to keep an appointment you should provide your responsible officer with evidence. This might be a doctor's note or a letter from your employer, for example.
